The University of Minnesota Crookston offers opportunities other colleges can’t, like same-rate tuition costs for international students, laptops for everyone, a safe on and off-campus community and a high post graduation job placement rate. These may seem like small details to your college experience, but they may make a big difference now and well into your future. And that is big!

ABOUT US

- 1,874 degree seeking students
- 33 degrees, 14 available online, 21 minors
- 19 students per class
- 16:1 student-faculty ratio
- 5 residence halls on campus
- 42 buildings on 237 acres
- 40+ clubs and organizations
- 28% out of state students
- 46 states & 24 countries represented

BREAKING DOWN THE NUMBERS

- 1,874 degree seeking students
- 33 degrees, 14 available online, 21 minors
- 19 students per class
- 16:1 student-faculty ratio
- 5 residence halls on campus
- 42 buildings on 237 acres
- 40+ clubs and organizations
- 28% out of state students
- 46 states & 24 countries represented

ESTIMATED COST OF ATTENDANCE

- Tuition and Fees: $13,071
- Room and Board: $8,228
- Health Insurance: $2,340
- Misc (books, personal expense): $2,740
- Total Cost: $26,079

UNDERGRADUATE POPULATION

- African American 6.5%
- Asian/Pacific 2.3%
- White 78.2%
- Not reported 2.1%
- American Indian 4%
- Chicano/Latino 3.6%
- International 5.1%

University of Minnesota Crookston offers a pre-collegiate English program, which provides English language instruction and related support services to international students who are both qualified for and have a desire to study undergraduate classes at UMN Crookston. Upon successful completion of the ESL program and with recommendation by the ESL faculty, students will be moved into a degree-seeking program. Students do not need to make another application. An official report of the TOEFL, IELTS, TOIEC or MELAB should be sent to International Admissions within the indicated deadlines.

YOUR BEST YEARS START HERE

U of M Crookston offers many of the comforts of home plus a few other perks you won’t find anywhere else. Our residence halls boast exercise and study rooms, spaces to hold quiet meetings and game rooms to amp up the fun. And all your new friends are right next door! Plus, research shows that students who live on campus perform better academically and are happier with their college experience. This is a degree recognized and respected by worldwide employers. So what are you waiting for?

NO OUT OF STATE TUITION

- Tuition and Fees: $13,071
- Room and Board: $8,228
- Health Insurance: $2,340
- Misc (books, personal expense): $2,740
- Total Cost: $26,079
• At U of M Crookston, we offer plenty of engaging experiences from research to volunteering and everything in between. Explore a plane cockpit, a biotech lab, a courtroom, a business board room, a river ecosystem, a veterinary office—experiences that give you life skills, engage your brain and prepare you for your career.

MINNESOTA NICE!

• Minnesota offers both urban and rural landscapes. Crookston, a town of 8,000 people, is located in the rural northwest part of the state. The University of Minnesota Crookston (UMC) is a public institution and one of five statewide campuses of the University of Minnesota system.

• Minneapolis, the state’s largest city, (also referred to with St. Paul as the “Twin Cities”) is 470 KM to the southeast. Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, lies 240 KM to the north. Grand Forks, North Dakota, 40 KM west, and Fargo, North Dakota, 115 KM southwest, both have regional airports.

Minors

- Accounting
- Agricultural Business
- Agricultural Systems Management
- Agronomy
- Animal Science
- Biology
- Chemistry
- Coaching
- Communication
- Criminal Justice
- Cybersecurity and Info Assurance
- English
- Environmental Sciences
- Equine Science
- Finance
- Horticulture
- Humanities
- Information Technology Management
- International Business
- Management
- Marketing
- Music
- Online option available

All programs are Bachelor of Science (B.S.) unless otherwise noted.