Sao Paulo: This is the largest city in the Americas and is the 11th largest city in the world. Here students will get a chance to see how farmers markets work and will visit with a local veterinary clinic.

Iguacu Water Falls: Iguazu also is compared with Victoria Falls in southern Africa, which separates Zambia and Zimbabwe. Iguazu is wider and it is a world wonder.

Moto Grosso: Agriculture is the largest sector in terms of its contributions to the GDP (Gross Domestic Product). Moto Grosso is Brazil’s most valuable soybean producer and is also a major producer and is also a major producer of cotton. Here you will visit people from the soybean and corn producing associations. It is here where you will witness the over 500,000 acre farms.

Rio de Janeiro: Rio de Janeiro is one of the most visited cities in the southern hemisphere and is known for its natural settings, carnival celebrations and most recently the world cup and the summer Olympics. Here students will be doing a service project with a housing development, and will visit an cattle farm producer.

Program Fees & Payments
The program fee will be $6000.00. This fee will cover excursions, housing, some meals, in country transportation (bus, 3 in-country plane rides, translators, tours. Also does not include credits if you are taking fewer than 13 credits.

Financial Aid & Scholarships
Most financial aid may be applied to study abroad. In addition, scholarship applications are available through the Learning Abroad Office at UMC. If you are searching for ways of fundraising, consider joining the Study Abroad Club.

Access Abroad
Learning Abroad Center and Disability Services are collaborating to enhance access to study abroad for students with disabilities. Students with disabilities are encouraged to explore opportunities abroad.

Eligibility & Application
This is open to all students at the University of Minnesota and other institutions. Pre-trip course is available online. Application deadline is November 15, 2016. Also there will be a non-refundable application fee of $50.00.

Contact: Rae French
rfrench@umn.edu
To apply go to: www.umcrookston.edu/learningabroad